

Handle Dangerous Goods/ Hazardous Substances (TLID2003)

This course is nationally recognised training that provides participants with the skills and knowledge to handle dangerous goods and hazardous substances, including identifying requirements for working with them, confirming site incident procedures and selecting safe handling techniques.

It includes WHS requirements, applying codes of practice and established procedures for the safe handling of dangerous goods and hazardous substances where work is performed under general supervision.

Course content

The topics covered in this course are:

1. Requirements for working with dangerous goods/hazardous substances
 - Legislation, standards, codes of practice
 - Safety Data Sheets, labelling, placards and signage, registers
 - Classes and characteristics of goods and substances
2. Site incident procedures
 - Incident reporting
 - Safety and environmental requirements
 - Emergency equipment and processes
 - Dangerous goods/hazardous substances manifests
3. Handling techniques
 - Suitable handling and shifting techniques and procedures
 - Storage, separation and segregation
 - Process for unidentified goods/substances and safe disposal

Who should attend this course?

This course is designed for anyone working in the transport, warehousing, distribution and storage industries who is required to handle or store dangerous goods and/or hazardous substances. It may also be customised to suit any other industry or workplace where handling of workplace substances is undertaken.

How is course content covered?

Face-to-face in the classroom.

How long does it take to complete the course?

6.5 hours.

Handle Dangerous Goods/ Hazardous Substances (TLID2003)

Where are courses delivered?

This course is delivered on site at your business location.

Entry requirements

There are no pre-requisites or co-requisites for this course. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is available. Please contact us for more information.

Unique Student Identifier

All participants attending this course will require a Unique Student Identifier (USI). For information about USIs and to register one go to www.usi.gov.au. Registering a USI takes less than five minutes and it's free.

How are participants assessed?

Assessment is undertaken via a range of methods including short answer quizzes, case studies, group activities and group discussion in the workplace or simulated workplace.

Qualification

A Statement of Attainment in Handle Dangerous Goods/Hazardous Substances (TLID2003) will be issued to each participant who successfully completes the course.

Special Needs

PeopleSafe Australia caters where possible for any special needs. Please advise us on application and completion of enrolment processes.

How much does it cost?

Please contact us for a quote for Corporate Group Training.

Course fees include:

- On-site Training and assessment with a qualified and experienced instructor. All PeopleSafe Australia trainers and assessors:
 - Have a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or higher as required by the Australian Government Department of Education and Training <https://www.education.gov.au/trainer-and-assessor-credential-requirements>
 - Have extensive training and assessment experience.
 - Are qualified in their discipline.
 - Have a history of working in the WHS industry.
- Course notes and learning material.
- Nationally Recognised Statement of Attainment – Handle Dangerous Goods/Hazardous Substances (TLID2003).

Handle Dangerous Goods/ Hazardous Substances (TLID2003)

Why PeopleSafe Australia?

PeopleSafe Australia is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO Number 91596). Our courses have been evaluated by industry representatives to ensure that they meet the highest standards and workplace relevance. We are committed to providing quality WHS training and assessment services with:

- Our friendly trainers are exceptionally qualified, with extensive practical experience.
- We provide high-quality reference materials for all participants.
- We use visual animated slides and interactive activities to make learning fun and effective.
- Our courses are delivered at a time and place that's convenient for you.
- Competitive prices.
- Excellent support.
- Personalised service.

How can I make a booking?

To make a booking for onsite training please contact us on 02 9501 1516 or email training@peoplesafe.com.au. We'll need just three weeks to co-ordinate suitable dates and times with our trainers. Payment can be made by direct transfer, cheque, Visa or Mastercard.

Refunds

A receipt will be issued for fees paid. All fees paid in advance will be held during the course and made available should a refund be required.

All requests for cancellations or transfers must be made in writing to PeopleSafe Australia prior to commencement of the course.

- A full refund will be made where PeopleSafe Australia cancels the course.
- Corporate Group Training –Postponement of any course within five working days of the course commencing will incur an administrative fee of 50% of the nominal daily training rate, plus (if applicable) airline charges to amend flight bookings. Postponed courses must be re-scheduled within 90 days, otherwise the cancellation fee will apply. Any course cancelled within 10 working days prior to the commencement date will incur a fee equivalent to 100% of the nominal daily training rate, plus (if applicable) pre-booked travel expenses and/or travel cancellation fees incurred by PeopleSafe Australia.

Refunds cannot be issued for change of mind, non attendance or not finishing a course.

Additional Information

Additional information about PeopleSafe Australia and the policies and procedures that we follow to ensure that you receive quality training can be found in our Participants Handbook, which is available at www.peoplesafe.com.au/participants_handbook. The handbook contains information about Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Consumer Protection, Payment terms, Refund Policy, Complaints and Appeals, and Learner Support.